Denison State Bank receives FHLBank Community Leader Award See video link at end

Denison State Bank, a member institution of FHLBank Topeka since 1994, was honored at FHLBank Topeka's Annual Management Conference on April 20, 2017, in Kansas City, Mo., for outstanding community leadership and strong financial performance.

"I want to congratulate Denison State Bank for receiving FHLBank Topeka's 2017 Community Leader Award," said FHLBank President and CEO Mark Yardley. "Denison State Bank touches every part of the communities they serve. We've been pleased to partner with them for more than 20 years to help northeast Kansas thrive."

The Community Leader Award includes a $5,000 donation to an organization of the winning institution's choice. Denison State Bank is giving the employees in their four locations (Holton, Hoyt, Meriden and Topeka) the choice of where to award the funds.

The award presentation also included a video tribute to Denison State Bank showcasing how they help individuals, businesses and nonprofit organizations in their community. The video is available at www.fhlbtopeka.com.

FHLBank Topeka is one of 11 Federal Home Loan Banks that accesses the capital markets to provide liquidity and funding for its members. With $45.2 billion in assets and nearly $2 billion in capital, FHLBank Topeka is a strong, reliable source of liquidity for its 747 member financial institutions in Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma.
